

Pellowah Healing Technique

Pellowah Healing Technique© is channelled from Divine Source Energy.

The word Pellowah is an angelic word meaning 'radical shift in consciousness'. This form of healing connects all 12 strands of DNA ready for activation. It also unblocks and realigns all meridians within the body giving a feeling of connection and well-being.

Pellowah is a simple powerful and effective form of energy healing increasing the capacity for positive change in your life.

Pellowah isn't just for those who require some healing or for therapists who would like to learn a new modality: Pellowah is for Personal and Spiritual expansion whatever stage of life you are in.

You may have found yourself at cross-roads or simply are searching for a better more fulfilling life. There is Light at the end of the tunnel. We are now past the stage of doing things the hard way. Pellowah creates that change of mind that is much needed at this time, enabling life to unfold with more grace and ease.

Pellowah was brought through for the purpose of enlightenment: the healing effects are simply a by-product of the 'shift in consciousness'.

Pellowah Workshop Levels

The Pellowah Healing Technique© has a series of three workshops. Level One and Two are practitioner workshops and Level Three is the trainer workshop.

The Level One workshop (1 day) gives the attunement necessary to become a practitioner of this amazing form of healing. Through this attunement your own awareness will be greatly expanded.

The Level Two workshop (1 day) gives an attunement that allows you to connect with the high being you were when you made the decision to be here at this time and place. This connection will enable you to bring the energy and consciousness of your higher being into your everyday life to complete your mission.

The Level Three workshop (2 days) is a teacher trainer course that will provide you with the attunements and information required to teach Pellowah Healing Technique© Level One and Two. The attunements will take you to a higher level of awareness. The Level Three workshop is currently taught only by Kachina Ma'an, the founder of the Pellowah Healing Technique©.
